The Standard Membership Model

Planet Fitness operates on a membership model designed to be accessible and affordable. Membership Agreements and Contracts

Members usually agree to a contract at sign-up, which may specify:

- The minimum commitment period (if any)
- The billing cycle
- The cancellation process
- Any associated fees

While most Planet Fitness memberships are billed monthly without a long-term commitment, some locations or promotional plans may include a minimum term.

- The type of membership plan
- The location?s policies
- The timing of the cancellation in relation to billing cycles
- Whether the member is under a contractual obligation

Most standard memberships, especially month-to-month plans, can be canceled without a penalty, provided the proper procedures are followed.

Contracts and Minimum Commitments

- Cancelling before the contract expires could incur early termination fees.
- The fees are typically outlined in the initial contract and can range from $50 to $150 or more, depending on the location.

If the membership is a month-to-month plan, members usually do not face early termination fees but must follow the cancellation process.

It?s crucial to understand the billing cycle:

- Cancelling just before the next billing date can prevent charges for the upcoming month.

- Member identification details

Billing for the Final Month

Members who cancel mid-billing cycle may still be responsible for the entire month?s dues, depending on the policy. Some locations might prorate the final bill, but this is not guaranteed.

Return of Membership Card or Equipment

Some clubs may require the return of access cards or key fobs to complete cancellation. Failure to do so might result in continued billing until the issue is resolved.

Outstanding Balances

Any unpaid fees or dues must be settled before the cancellation is finalized. This includes overdue payments, late fees, or charges for damages or lost equipment.

Refund Policies

Generally, Planet Fitness does not offer refunds for dues already paid. Members should be aware that cancellation typically prevents future billing but does not entitle them to refunds of previous payments.
